Dear Festival Exhibitor,

As festival chair, I would like to invite you to participate in the 2010 Columbus International Festival Saturday and Sunday, November 6 & 7. Our theme this year is Global Celebrations. The updated 2009 festival was a great success that we would like to build upon in 2010. We want to continue adding exciting new features to the festival while celebrating the traditional elements that participants have enjoyed over the past 55 years. Your participation is part of our beloved tradition.

With your support and the support of our dedicated volunteers, we can build upon our success and have an even better festival in 2010. Early applications with payment are appreciated and discounted until July 15, 2010. Early applicants receive preferential booth placement and program listing. Help us to help you achieve financial success this year!

If you have any questions, please email me at festival@unacol.org or call our office at 614-228-4010.

Sincerely,

J.S. Jindal
